Dear Sonia,

I am going on a picnic in Victoria Park next Sunday.

I want to eat bread, biscuits, apples and pizza. I want to drink milk, soda water, water, coffee and chocolate milk. I want to play catch and build a house using wood and sticks.

Do you want to come with me? Are you interested? Who do you want to come with? What other games do you want to play with me?

Please write soon.

Best,

Charis Wong
