Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry' 2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others
----------------------	---

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

Last week, I complained about my little sister because she didn't tidy the toys. She said she didn't want to tidy them. Then, I quarrelled with her and fought with her. At last, we said sorry to each other. I wrote a sorry card for her. From now on, I will concern her feelings.
