| Learning Objectives: | 1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry' 2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others |
|----------------------|---|

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

Last year, I made fun of my younger sister. Because she was afraid of ants, I drew a lot of ants on a piece of paper and gave it to her suddenly. Although she felt very scared and angry, I laughed at her. Finally, my aunt taught me how to be a good brother and asked me to say sorry to her. I promised not to make fun of her again.
