Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry' 2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others
----------------------	---

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

Yesterday, my brother and I argued because we both wanted to eat the jelly. At last our dad stopped our argument. We should share the jelly with each other. We shouldn't argue because of this matter. We will both learn how to share things with each other from now on.

Self-evaluation Checklist ☺
