Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry' 2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others
----------------------	---

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

Once, I quarrelled with my mum madly and yelled at her impolitely because she cancelled my tennis ^{training} without noticing me. I even angrily smashed the racket.

After few days, I realised that I made a very big mistake and had very bad attitude to my mum. And I understood her kind intention was to arrange sufficient time for rest and studies.

I felt extremely regreted although I apologized to my mum about my fault. In the end of the special incident, I studied hard and got a very good result for my examination. Afterwards, I even won a tennis competition with a new racket! I learnt a lot that poor behaviour and attitude would not solve the matter. Only be nice and keep calm would make things better.
