Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry' 2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others
----------------------	---

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

One day, I quarreled with my sister because we both wanted to play with a doll. Then my mum came to our room to look what happened there and she told us, we needed to play together. In the end, we said sorry to each other and played it together happily.
