Learning Objectives:

1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the poem 'I'm so Sorry'
2. to learn how to think from other's perspectives and learn to care for others

From the poem, 'I'm so Sorry', Mary was mad with her brother because he didn't help with the washing up. Have you ever argued with your family member? How did you solve the problem? Illustrate that specific incident in the box below and briefly describe the cause of the argument, the solution and what you can do to prevent it from happening again.

Last week, my brother didn't help with the housework. I was so mad. I didn't talk to him for the day. The next morning, he said 'Sorry, I will help with the housework next time.' Then we became the best friend again.
