Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories' 2. to cultivate the ability to reflect 2. to learn to be a caring and empathetic person
----------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life. What do you think of Kaisong? What can you do to help the poor in Hong Kong? Please write and draw a picture to illustrate your ideas.

I think Kaisong is very poor. Her life is very hard. I will donate money, clothes, food and blankets. Then the Aid Workers live comfortably and safely. They don't need to live in a very small hut. They can sleep well because they can wear more thick clothes to keep warm at night. At Christmas, I will costplay as Santa who give money, clothes, food, blankets and love to them.
