----------------------	--

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life. What do you think of Kaisong? What can you do to help the poor in Hong Kong? Please write and draw a picture to illustrate your ideas.

Kaisong lived in one of the poorest countries, she lived in a tiny hut with her mother, sister, brother and grandmother. Kaisong had no animals or rice fields so Kaisong and her sister had to go to the forest and look for tiny frogs to eat.

We can run a second hand store to sell old things, we will have money and we can donate to old people, we can donate food, masks, books, pencil..... to the poor people. We can even give food to the homeless and ~~blasts~~ ^{star!}
