Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories' 2. to cultivate the ability to reflect 2. to learn to be a caring and empathetic person
----------------------	--

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life. What do you think of Kaisong? What can you do to help the poor in Hong Kong? Please write and draw a picture to illustrate your ideas.

I think Kaisong was unfortunate. She could not go to school so she could hardly improve her difficult situations in the future. Even worse, I am afraid that she would die easily because of malnutrition. To help the poor in Hong Kong, I can donate money to ~~charities~~ ^{charities}. I can also participate in charitable activities such as going on a charity walk or selling flags to collect sponsors' money to help them. Donating food to the food bank is also a good idea.
