Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories' 2. to cultivate the ability to reflect 2. to learn to be a caring and empathetic person
----------------------	--

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life. What do you think of Kaisong? What can you do to help the poor in Hong Kong? Please write and draw a picture to illustrate your ideas.

I think Kaisong is really a poor child who is living in poverty and bad living conditions.

Although Hong Kong is a modern city, the problem of income inequality is serious. There are still many poor people who are facing hardship on all fronts such as low living standard and lack of resources.

In order to help the poor, we can donate unused things
