Learning Objectives:	1. to instil positive values and attitudes of being a good citizen through reading the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories' 2. to cultivate the ability to reflect 2. to learn to be a caring and empathetic person
----------------------	--

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life. What do you think of Kaisong? What can you do to help the poor in Hong Kong? Please write and draw a picture to illustrate your ideas.

From the magazine article 'Aid Workers' Stories', we learnt that Kaisong lived a hard life, I think Kaisong is too poor. We can donate some money to her family. I hope she can have a chance to receive education and improve her life. I will take part in some fundraising activities. I think every penny counts. I will help the poor in Hong Kong through raising funds to the people in need in society. Therefore, I highly encourage my colleagues to join the fundraising activities.

I hope everybody knows that 'It's more blessed to give than to receive.'
