An unexpected new friend

Mandy is a busy girl because she has a lot of activities to do. First, she goes to Brownies on Mondays. Next, she has tennis lessons on Wednesdays. Then, she has piano lessons on Fridays. She wishes she could have more time to make new friends.

One sunny Sunday morning, Mandy and her friend Winnie go to the park with their tennis rackets to play tennis. Unfortunately, Mandy hits the ball too far and it falls into the fountain. They are shocked and disappointed. Many sighs, “What can we do? We can’t finish our game.”

In the end, a friendly dog comes and jumps into the fountain. It brings the ball back to the girls. Mandy pets the dog and says, “You are such a clever dog. You save our game.” Winnie says, “We are so happy to have a new friend like you.” The dog wags its tail and barks happily.
