Where is the tennis ball?

Mandy is a Brownie. She goes to Brownies on Saturdays. She has piano lessons on Mondays. She also plays tennis on Fridays.

On a sunny Friday, Mandy and Winnie go to the park happily. Mandy asks, ‘How are you, Winnie?’ Winnie says, ‘I am fine, thank you.’ They play tennis in the park. Accidentally, their tennis ball falls into a nearby fountain.

They are shocked and sad. They get back the ball because the water in the fountain is shallow. So Mandy climbs into the fountain and get the ball back. They feel happy and satisfied after getting back the ball.
