Sally's Birthday

It's Sally's birthday. Billy wants to buy a cute little doll for Sally because Sally has a lot of cute dolls and she loves dolls. Therefore, Billy goes to Fun Fun Toy Shop at Joyful Shopping Centre.

First, he goes to Fun Fun Toy Shop. He sees a doll and a robot. Therefore, he asks the shopkeeper, 'How much is the robot?' The shopkeeper replies, 'It's one hundred and ten dollars.' So, he buys it. Then, on the way home, he remembers that he forgets to buy the doll for Sally. He keeps thinking what to do. Then he has an idea. 'Mum gives me one hundred sixty dollars. The doll is sixty dollars and the robot is one hundred and ten dollars. It means I need ten dollars more to buy the doll. Therefore, Billy goes home to take ten dollars from his piggy bank and goes back to Fun Fun Toy Shop.

In the end, Billy buys the doll and then goes home. Just in time for Sally's birthday party. Billy gives the doll to Sally. Now everybody has a present. Billy thinks that he will never buy a robot again because he already got one.
