✧ Good Manners in Public Places ✧

It is important to behave well when we are in public places such as restaurants and supermarkets.

First, we should have good manners in the restaurants. We should not shout there. We should not run because we may bump into others and hurt others. It is also very disturbance with people running around. We should not eat messily. We should speak politely and keep the table clean. We should be considerate when eating out.

When we are in the supermarket, we should also behave nicely. We should not speak rudely to the shop assistant. We should not talk loudly on the phone so you will not disturb others. We should walk carefully when we are pushing the shopping cart. We should wait patiently at the cashier.

To sum up, we should behave nicely in public places. We should behave well and be good customers.
