To be honest or not to be?

There were two miners, Garold and Tyler. Garold was wearing a hard hat and a jacket. Tyler was wearing a hard hat and a vest.

One day, Garold and Tyler went mining for gemstones. They mined a few rubies, emerald and jade. Suddenly, Garold dropped his pickaxe into a cavern. He went to retrieve it but dropped his pouch accidentally. Oh, no! I put all my gemstones in that pouch. What will I do?' Suddenly a lizard hissed and lead them to two pouches. One was Garold's but the other wasn't. Garold took both pouches.

The next day, Garold went mining but couldn't find anything. He realized he was cursed to never be able to find gemstones ever again and regretted his action.
