At the supermarket

Last week, May and Danny went to the supermarket because they wanted to buy some food and drinks for a birthday party.

First, May and Danny went to the snack section to buy some chips. ‘Which one should we buy, curry flavoured potato chips or strawberry flavoured potato chips?’ asked May. ‘I want something spicy. Let’s buy curry flavoured potato chips!’ said Danny. Then, he put two packets of potato chips in the trolley. Next, they went to look for Cola. Happy Cola is cheaper than Nice Cola so May bought four cans of Happy Cola.

At the checkout, May shouted, ‘Oh no!’ I forgot to bring my wallet!’ Luckily, they saw their mother nearby so Mum helped them to pay. May learned that she had to be careful next time!
