An unforgettable day at a supermarket

One day, May and Danny wanted to have an afternoon tea. They went to the supermarket and bought some food and drinks for their afternoon tea.

They wanted to buy two cartons of milk, a cake and a bunch of bananas. May said, “Let’s buy a carton of Lifay milk because we can buy one and get two free! We can share with Mum.” However, Danny was unhappy. “Why? I want to drink that new chocolate milk!” Then they saw the cake. May said, “Would you like a cheese cake or a chocolate cake?” Danny said, “I’d like a cheese cake, please.” So they bought a cheese cake. After that, they bought a bunch of bananas.

They went to the checkout, but they forgot to bring the shopping bag. “It’s OK,” May said. “I bring my school bag. We can use it!”

Finally, they had their afternoon tea. May said, “What a good day!” Everyone was happy.
