

Hennessy Road Government Primary School (Causeway Bay)
2023-2024 1st Term Writing (2)

5H (21) Wong Pui Yin Charis

To be Honest or Not to be?

Once upon a time, there was a girl called Olivia. She lived happily with her mum. As a good student, she always went to school on time and got good grades.

However, one day after school, she didn't seem to be in a good mood. She was in the white shirt, black trousers and with the mole on her face. She was also with the pink and black watch. She took out her report card and sighed, 'What can I do with these bad grades? Mum's going to scold me!' She was on pins and needles. Suddenly, a little elf appeared. It was in the green top hat and with the scar on its neck. Olivia was out of the blue. The little elf calmed her down and suggested, 'Well... you can lie to her or just tell her the truth.' Olivia was too scared of Mum so she chose to be dishonest. When Mum came home from work, she started doing housework. She was in the pink apron, the full-length jeans and with the long blonde hair. Olivia quickly took out her homework and pretended to be doing it. Mum came in Olivia's room and asked, 'Sweetheart, has your teacher given you the report card yet?' Olivia got tongue-tied, she replied softly, 'Urm...no, she hasn't given me the report card yet.' Then she walked out of the room. Unfortunately, when she came back, Mum was holding her report card and flew off the handle! 'I trust you but you lied! I will never trust you again!' Mum scolded.

Olivia felt so embarrassed and apologized in a low voice.

That night, Olivia called the little elf for help. ‘Let me step back in time please! I need to make my decision again.’ The little elf smiled, ‘Hope you can do it right this time. Now off you go.’ Olivia waved at it and disappeared in a flash.

After all of these, Olivia learnt a lesson. She has to be honest and she should never tell lies.