To be Honest or Not to be?

One day, Sam and Karen's parents bought them a new robot from a toy shop. When they went back home, they gave their children the robot and they were as happy as a bird. Sam was wearing a T-shirt and shorts. Karen was wearing beautiful pajamas. After dinner, they were playing the new robot joyfully.

At 11pm, Karen's parents told them to go to bed because they had to go to school the next day. When their parents went back to their room to sleep, Sam went out and played with the robot again until 3 am.

The next day, Sam got up late, so he ran to school. When he got into the classroom, he saw Miss Lam had started the lesson already. He felt regretful and embarrassed. "Sorry, Miss Lam. I should get up early and go to school early," Sam promised. Also, he decided to sleep early. At last, Miss Lam forgave him.
