A Day at the Shopping Centre

It is Sunday afternoon. Dad and I want to buy Mum a present because it is her birthday. Dad asks, 'Where do you want to go?' I say, 'Let's go to Windsor House. I want to go to a florist shop because Mum likes flowers very much.' Then we go to Windsor House together by bus.

We go to Lily's Flowers and buy a bunch of red roses. They are very beautiful. They are one hundred dollars. After that we are hungry. We go to Yummy Fast food. I order a packet of French fries, a slice of pizza and a bottle of water. Dad orders two boxes of chicken wings and a can of cola. They taste yummy. We enjoy the food and drinks very much. We feel delighted and hope Mum likes this present.
