A day in the park

Today I go to the park with my friend. Her name is Alice. I can see a lot of flowers in the park. The flowers are as colourful as a rainbow.

I bring a doll and a teddy bear. They are Mimi and Bibi. The dress of the doll is red and her shoes are blue. The T-shirt of the teddy bear is green and his shorts are yellow. We play in the park for an hour. When we get out of the park, I find that my doll is lost. I cry loudly.

In the end, I find my doll near a fountain. I feel very happy. I am as happy as a king. I have to be careful because I will not be so lucky next time.
