My diary

Sunday      14th April, 2024      Sunny

Today was a great day. I had a day camp with my friends. We went there by bus.

In the morning I went swimming in the swimming pool with Ethan. It was hot.

In the afternoon I played tennis at the tennis court with Colin. We played tennis because it was fun. I was as happy as a songbird in spring.

In the evening I had a barbecue at the barbecue site with Ethan and Lucas. We were hungry. We ate a lot. We were on cloud nine.

It was a great day. I felt happy. I look forward to going there again.
