Dear Ginny,

I am happy to know that you will visit Hong Kong soon. I have waited for a thousand years. I have some great ideas for our one-day trip.

In the morning, we will go to Cheung Chau by ferry. We will eat mango rice dumplings. We will also eat jumbo fishballs. We will have lunch in Sai Kung. We will go there by boat and taxi. We will eat seafood in a Chinese restaurant.

In the afternoon, we will go to the Peak. We will go there by Peak tram. We will go hiking. We will also look at the spectacular view of Hong Kong. We will have dinner at the Peak, too. We will go to the restaurant on foot and eat roasted food. Finally, we will go home.

What do you think about my plan? Do you have any ideas? Feel free to tell me if you have.

My friend will come with us. We'll be as happy as clams!

Bye for now.

Love,
Aiden
