An Unforgettable Day

Last Sunday, Mary and Tom decided to go to Sai Kung Country Park. They were very excited. They packed everything very fast because they really wanted to hike.

After an hour, they arrived at the bus stop. They didn't know how to go to the country park so they asked a hiker, 'How far is it from here to Sai Kung Country Park?' 'It's a long way. It's ten kilometres,' the hiker answered clearly. 'I suggest you to go there by bus, it's comfortable and cheap.'

Suddenly, there was a long queue near the bus stop. Tom said, 'Travelling by bus is very slow, as slow as a snail.' Mary preferred to take the bus so she said, 'Although travelling by bus is slow, but it is comfortable and safe.' 'Taxi is fast, comfortable and cool with air-conditioner,' Tom convinced. 'Mary, please go there by taxi, because it is fast.' Finally, she agreed. Then, they jumped into a taxi.

Suddenly, it rained heavily. After an hour, there was flooding and the taxi couldn't move. Unfortunately, the water came into the taxi, they were on pins and needles, they opened the door and they had to swim to the mall. All their clothes and bags were wet. Finally, they felt disappointed because they couldn't go hiking.

At last, they learned they should work together as a team and all the problems can be solved.

They arrived at home at 10:00p.m. Although they were very exhausted and hungry, they thought the trip was so unforgettable.
