Eric and the Genie

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea. ‘You can find the old wizard who lives on the top of the mountain for help,’ he suggested.

Then they set off to get help from the wizard. They walked for hours and hours. They passed a lot of rivers and climbed a lot of mountains.

After a long time, Eric and the genie finally arrived at their destination. He knocked the door. After a few minutes the wizard opened the door and let them in. The wizard asked, ‘How can I help you?’ ‘I wish you can help me to be short back again,’ answered Eric. ‘Do you think you can help me?’ ‘Of course!’ replied the wizard.

‘But I heard that you wanted to be tall, why would you like to be short again?’ Eric and the genie explained the whole story to the wizard and the wizard helped him make a magic potion for him.

However, the old wizard had a wish. He asked him to make friends with his lonely grandson so Eric and the wizard's grandson became friends.

The wizard did not break his promise. He made Eric a powerful magic potion. He asked him to drink it if he wished to be shorter. Suddenly, Eric felt a bit tinkling and became short again.

In the end Eric returned home and kept helping his grandma to sort the boxes. He told her all about his adventure. They all lived happily ever after.
