Sally's Birthday

Today is Sally's birthday. After lunch, Billy goes to the toy shop on the first floor of Joyful Shopping Centre. He wants to buy a doll for his sister, Sally.

When Billy goes into the toy shop, he sees his favourite toy robot and he really loves it. 'How much does the robot cost?' asks Billy. 'It's a hundred and ten dollars,' says the shopkeeper. He pays all of his money to buy the robot that he likes. He forgets to buy the present for Sally.

When he is on the way home, he suddenly remember that he forgets to buy a doll. 'Oh no!' says Billy. He feels shocked and worried. He runs back to the toy shop in Joyful Shopping Centre and exchanges a doll with the robot.

When Billy arrives home, he gives Sally the toy doll immediately.

‘Happy birthday, Sally!’ says Billy. Sally gives a big kiss to her brother, Billy. They both feel on cloud nine.
