An Unlucky Day

Last Sunday, May and Danny went to a supermarket to buy some food and drinks for Christmas party. They were so excited.

When they arrived at the supermarket, May looked for her favourite food and drinks such as vegetables, sausages, cheese, biscuits, potato chips and coke. Danny looked for some fruit and salad dressing to make yummy fruit salad.

After that, they went to the cashier to pay for the food and drinks. They found that they did not bring enough money. 'Oh, no!' they said.

In the end, they went back home and asked their parents for enough money to buy the food and drinks.
