An astonishing supermarket experience

Last Sunday, May and Danny decided to go to the supermarket near their home.

When they arrived, they started to look for the things that they needed to buy. May said, 'We need a packet of chocolate. However, there are some very expensive chocolate.'

Danny said, 'Yummy chocolate is yummiier than Happy chocolate but Good Good chocolate is the yummiest. Therefore, I suggest to buy the Good Good chocolate. Furthermore, Good Good chocolate is the cheapest. Thusm it is a good choice.'

But when they started to pay for the things that they bought, May saw a person reaching into a customer's bag and he pulled out a wallet. 'Stop!' yelled May. The thief quickly started to run out of the supermarket. Thankfully, some guards managed to catch the thief before he escaped.
