My Dream Job

Everyone has a dream job and my dream job is a PE teacher. When I was a child, I met a coach who taught me how to play football. He was kind and patient. Also, he guided me to be a positive and disciplined player. At that time, I decided to become a good PE teacher.

I want to be a PE teacher when I grow up. It is because the income is high and the working hours are stable. Besides, I can contribute to the society.

If I become a PE teacher, I will teach the students how to play ball games and how to stay fit. To do that, I need to learn more sports skills so that I can help students to improve their sports skills. Furthermore, I need to be strong so that I can do exercise with them. Moreover, I need to be patient so that I can listen to the students' needs and give suggestions.

I know it is not an easy job but I have confidence that I will be a good PE teacher because I really like children and doing sports. All in all, practice makes perfect. I have to do more exercise and study hard.
