Eric's Strange Encounter

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea. The genie suggested to go to a wizard's house on the top of a tall mountain. Eric agreed so the genie took Eric to the bottom of the mountain. Eric said to the genie, 'There was a river. I don't know how to swim.' The wizard said, 'You are tall enough to walk across it!' 'Then how about the mountain?' asked Eric. The genie said, 'You need to be patient and don't give up easily.'

After climbing a long way up, the genie and Eric reached the wizard's house, Eric asked the wizard if he could make a shrinking potion for him. After a few minutes, the wizard gave the potion to Eric.

After drinking the potion, Eric shrank and shrank until he became to his normal height. Then he found a problem that how could he go down the mountain. The wizard made another potion called flying potion, so the wizard gave him the flying potion and Eric flew back home safely.

In the end Eric reunited with his parents.
