Eric and Genie

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea. ‘You can find a wizard who can definitely help you,’ he suggested. ‘Wizard Mike was my teacher. However, no one knows where his magic house is!’

Determined to find Wizard Mike, genie and Eric climbed every mountain and crossed every river. After a month, they finally found him in a humble house.

Wizard Mike was practising magic when they found him. ‘Wow! You are as tall as my house!’ Wizard was shocked. Eric told him his problem. ‘You are too impulsive and didn’t consider the consequences. I won’t help you unless you promise me one thing,’ the wizard said. Eric nodded without asking him what he had to promise. The mighty wizard gave him a bottle of magic potion. In a moment, Eric drank it to the bottom. In a flash, he was back to his normal size. He felt amazed and his eyes were filled with tears of joy.

Then, Eric asked Wizard Mike what he had to do. Wizard Mike told him, ‘You need to promise me two things! Before you do anything, you must think twice about the consequences. You should be satisfied with what you have,’ Eric knew he was wrong and kept those in mind. After learning his lesson, he became Wizard Mike’s apprentice and helped people with his magic.
