Mandy's Lesson Learnt

Mandy is as busy as a bee. She goes to Brownies on Tuesdays. She has piano lessons on Fridays. She has tennis lessons on Thursdays. She is very tired every week.

On Sunday, the weather is as hot as lava. Mandy and her friend, Winnie, go to the park to play tennis. They bring tennis rackets and balls. When they are playing tennis, the ball suddenly falls into the fountain.

Mandy and Winnie are shocked and sad. They say, "Oh no! Our ball falls into fountain. What should we do?" Meanwhile, a park staff comes to them and asks, "What is happening?" Mandy tells the whole story and asks, "Can you lend the net to us?" The staff replies, "Yes, Sure." Then Mandy uses the net to pick up the ball.

In the end, they are happy, but they also feel sorry to the staff. They learn that they can't play tennis in the park.
