Mandy and Winnie

Mandy is polite. She is seven years old. She goes to Brownies on Tuesdays, has tennis lessons on Thursdays and piano lessons on Fridays. Mandy and Winnie go to a famous park together.

On Saturday, Mandy and Winnie are in the park. They play tennis in the park together. Suddenly, the ball falls into the fountain. They say, 'Oh no!' They feel distraught because the ball falls down and they can't play tennis again.

At the end, they ask a security guard for help. At last, they get back the ball because the security guard helps them. They are full of happiness.
