A Very Busy Day in Sam's Home

It is Sunday morning. Sam and his mother are at home. Mom is super busy today. She needs to do all the housework. But what about Sam? He is lazy, he just lies on the sofa and watches TV. Sam's mother hangs up the washing, mops the floor, sweeps the floor and waters the plants.

When Sam's mother is doing the housework, she feels tired and sick. Then she lies on the bed and falls asleep. Sam becomes worried because of that, but he does not know what to do. He thinks for a long time, and he knows what to do.

Finally, he does all the housework that Mom hasn't done. Sam also gives his mother medicine, and asks her if she is okay.

In the end, Sam's mother gets better. Sam feels happy and his mother feels happy too!
