Barry's Change

Today Barry is at home watching TV and eating snacks. Barry wants to join the school football team. He says, 'I can't join the team because I can't run fast.' His friend Jacky says to him, 'Two years ago, I was weak and thin. This year I am fit and strong because I do a lot of exercises.'

Barry listens to his advice. From then on, he eats less snacks and practices running more. The school football team finally accepts him as a member this year. He is thrilled.
