Sunny

Today was my best day of the week.

In the morning, after I took my breakfast and did my morning exercise, I went to Tai Po to have a camping with my family. I want to learn some basic survival skills in camp.

In the afternoon, I ate rice with beef for my lunch. Then I swam in the river with my family. We enjoyed the beautiful scenery around us so much.

In the evening, we had a barbecue. After that, we sang songs and watched the glittering stars in the empty sky. It was amazing.

It was such a wonderful and unforgettable day in my life. I was lucky.
