My Role Model

The person I admire is Lee Lai Shan. She is a well-known windsurfer. She is my role model.

Lee Lai Shan is 54 years old. She is a professional windsurfer. She took part in many international competitions and won an Olympic gold medal in 1996. It was the first Olympic gold medal representing Hong Kong.

Lee Lai Shan is a persistent and as hard-working as a bee. Even when she suffered from severe back injury, she never gave up. She practiced surfing every day. She is enthusiastic about teaching other than windsurfing.

Lee Lai Shan is a successful example showing me that I should be persistent and hard-working in order to achieve my dreams. She is always my good role model.
