A Good Day

Last Sunday was a sunny day. Then sun was shining brightly. Mary and her brother, Tom, wanted to Hong Kong Country Park for hiking. After packing their rucksacks and eating a scrumptious breakfast, they set off cheerfully.

Mary and Tom first took the bus to the destination. When they arrived, they noticed that they went to Fan Fan Country Park. Immediately, Mary asked a hiker, 'How far is it from here to Hong Kong Country Park?' 'It's about ten kilometres,' said the hiker. They were anxious.

At the stop, there was a long queue. Mary didn't want to take the bus because it was too crowded. Then Tom suggested to take a taxi because it was comfortable and they could reach there earlier.

When they arrived at Hong Kong Country Park, they stretched and took a deep breath of the fresh air. They enjoyed the hiking and picnic. Most importantly, they learnt that they should search the information and prepare well before a trip.
