A Trip to Aberdeen Country Park

Last Sunday morning, Mary and Tom wanted to go to Aberdeen Country Park. They were in Sheung Wan so they did not know where the nearest bus stop was.

When Mary and Tom were walking, the leaves crunched under their feet. They saw a hiker. Mary asked, 'Where is the nearest bus stop?' The hiker replied, 'It's not far. It takes five minutes to walk there.' Mary also asked, 'How long does it take to get to Aberdeen country park by bus?' The hiker replied, 'It takes fifty minutes to get there.' Mary and Tom started walking to the bus stop.

When they got to the bus stop, they quarreled on what transportation to take. Mary wanted to take the bus. Although travelling by bus was crowded, it was cheap. Tom wanted to take the taxi. Although travelling by taxi was expensive, it's comfortable, so they made a decision by doing rock-paper-scissors.

In the end, they took the bus and arrived at Aberdeen Country Park. They were as happy as clams.
