Sally's Birthday

Today is Billy's sister Sally's birthday. Billy goes to Joyful Shopping Centre, which is as huge as a city, to buy a doll for Sally since Sally loves dolls. However, it is so expensive because it is one hundred and fifty dollars.

When Billy arrives at the huge Joyful Shopping Centre, he is excited since he spots a cool robot like it is alive, so he loves the robot. When he is on the way home, he yells, 'Oh, no!' I forget to buy the lovely doll for Sally!' He suddenly feels worried and begins to cry since the robot is one hundred and ninety dollars and he gasps in despair.

In the end, Billy goes back to the giant Joyful Shopping Centre and he finally buys the doll for Sally, so he goes home. He successfully purchases the doll and he and Sally feel as happy as kings.
