Shopping Experience in the Supermarket

Yesterday, May and Danny were in the supermarket in the afternoon. First, they went to buy some vegetables. Then, they went to buy some fruit. Finally, they went to the cashier to check out.

However, when Danny wanted to pay, he couldn't find his wallet. So, he asked May, "Did you see my wallet?" May said, "I didn't see your wallet." Then, he asked the cashier, "Did you see my wallet?" The cashier said, "No, I didn't."

Finally, Danny asked May, "May, can you borrow me some money? I will pay you back next time." May kindly gave him some money, and Danny was able to pay the bill. They both left the supermarket feeling relieved.
