At the Supermarket

Last Saturday, Mum and I wanted to buy snacks for their holiday, so we went to the busy supermarket. They planned to buy some candies, biscuits, yogurt and a bottle of juice.

Next, they walked along the snack aisle. We saw many yummy treats. We picked our favourite snacks and put them in the basket.

Then, we were ready to check out. Suddenly, we met a thief who was hiding snacks in his bag. Mum and I told the supermarket worker at once. The worker stopped the thief. Everyone praised Mum and I for being brave. We paid for their snacks and went home safely.
