To be Honest or Not to be

Last year, an incident happened in a jewellery shop in Causeway Bay. Tom stole some jewellery but got caught, but his friend Hayden knew this would happen so he told the police what happened.

Tom and Hayden were walking down the street in Causeway Bay at one o'clock in the morning. On the way they saw a jewellery shop. Tom said, 'I am a bit poor, I can break in the shop and steal the jewellery. I'll be rich after selling the jewellery!' Hayden said, 'Don't do it! The police will come immediately!' Tom didn't listen and grabbed a hammer to break in the shop. The siren rang loudly at once.

Once Tom got in, the CCTV instantly captured a photo and recorded everything. Tom was in a black T-shirt, with gloves and sunglasses. Hayden was in a polo shirt and with short curly hair. Tom didn't cover his whole face. The police quickly went to the jewellery shop and arrested Tom. The police chief said, 'Nice try! Next time remember to cover your face!' Everyone in the jewellery shop laughed.

I learn that we can't be greedy. Besides, we can't steal or destroy other people's properties, but Tom didn't!
