Sam does chores

Today is Saturday. It is a holiday. Sam's mother is busy doing chores at home because the house looks dirty and messy. She is doing all the housework, for example, sweeping the floor, hanging up the washing and watering the plants. However, Sam is watching TV on the sofa after playing with his toys. He does not tidy up his toys.

Suddenly, Sam's mother disappears in the living room. Sam thinks it is weird and he finds his mother in her bedroom. His mother lies in bed because he is sick. She has a fever. 'Are you tired?' asks Sam. 'Yes, I am,' answers his mother. Sam feels sad and his home is still messy.

In the end, his mothers tells Sam to do the housework by himself. Later, Sam does all the chores. They feel happy. Sam's mother is proud of him. 'You are such a good boy,' says his mother.
