Mandy and Winnie's Awful Experience

Mandy is a hard-working girl. She goes to Brownies on Tuesdays. She has piano lessons on Fridays. She has tennis lessons on Thursdays.

On a sunny and hot Saturday morning, Mandy and her best friend Winnie go to the park near their home. It is very big and popular.

They play tennis at the park but Mandy hits too hard that the ball falls into the fountain. Winnie cries, "Oh no! How can we get the ball back!" Mandy says, "Let's ask the park keeper for help! They feel shocked and upset.

At that moment, the park keeper goes by. Mandy asks the park keeper, "Can you help us, please?" "Of course I can," the park keeper replies. Mandy and Winnie tell the park keeper all the things that happen. The park keeper helps them to get the ball back by using the tennis racket. Finally, they feel cheerful and excited.
