Mandy and Winnie's awful experience

Today is Saturday. Mandy and her best friend Winnie are in a park. Mandy is hardworking and Winnie is excited to go to the park with a smart friend. She does not like dumb or rude friends. And they want to play tennis so they bring a tennis ball and tennis rackets.

Then, Winnie does something unexpectedly. She hits the ball too hard and it falls into the fountain. They feel very upset and shocked. Then they immediately find people to help.

Finally, they get the ball back because the park keeper helps them. They feel happy and joyful.
