Barry's Lesson

Barry like watching football games. He only likes to stay at home and eat snacks. This year, he wants to join the school football team.

Barry has a PE lesson on Monday. Barry can't run fast because he is fat. "Oh no! I can't join the football team," says Barry. Then Jack says to Barry, "I was weak and thin two year ago. Then I play basketball every day. Now I am fit and strong."

In the end, he starts doing sports every day. He plays football on Mondays and swims on Wednesdays. After three months, he is strong and fit. He joins the school football team.
