My Diary

Sunday 3rd May, 2026

Sunny

Today was wonderful. I enjoyed a lovely day out with my family on Po Toi Island.

In the morning, my family stopped by several food stalls. We had some mango mochi to taste traditional local snacks.

In the afternoon, Dad and I went hiking and explored some historic spots around the island.

Later in the evening, we headed to Aberdeen Promenade. I made friends with a sweet little girl there. She was really adorable.

What a fantastic day! I felt as excited as can be.
